

KAREN'S SHOE TREND: So, what's new with shoes? Looks like this fall's shoe line-up is full of eye-catching trends sure to make their way into your wardrobe!

Here are a few shoes to peruse:

Lots of Lace-up: No one knows for sure if the popularity of Fifty Shades of Grey contributed to this shoe trend, but there were certainly lots of lace-up shoes on every runway for the fall/winter season. Think super-high, string-tie heels and boots!

Furry Fun: We're not talking just fur-trimmed shoes. We mean all-over fur! Imagine hairy heels – from boots to sandals to slippers. It's a bold look that few can pull off! It's truly a statement.

Colorblock Coordination: Who doesn't love color? So, why not try sporting a shoe with two, three, four or more hues? If you can do it, why not?! Fashion is meant to be adventurous and fun! Plus, colorblock shoes are a different way of adding some splash to your overall look.

Next time, I'll talk about the other fall/winter shoe trends you'll see this coming season. Until then, happy shoe shopping!
